EXECUTIVE COACH, FACILITATOR & SPEAKER

Bibi is an ANLP accredited Executive Coach, Facilitator and Speaker with over 20 years' professional experience. She previously worked for top UK Law firm, Clifford Chance LLP in London and the Middle East as Head of HR, Head of Resourcing & Mobility and Shared Services Manager.

Leadership and organisation development from a behavioural and cultural change perspective is Bibi's focus. Her aim is to guide clients to achieve holistic success in personal, professional, and organisational contexts.

Combining her Coaching, NLP and HR skills, Bibi supports clients to understand themselves better and recognise their triggers, patterns and resources and how they can navigate each, to function at an optimum level. In doing so, clients can reflect and grow in each given situation enhancing their belief, capability and impact.

Bibi supports organisations in delivering HR strategies relating to Restructures, Change, Engagement, Performance, D&I and gender balance in view of promoting a healthier, driven culture with improved productivity, performance and profit.

With extensive knowledge of Partnerships and matrixed organisations, clients include Legal, Professional Services, Banking, FinTech, Management Consultants, Manufacturing and Retail. Clients appreciate Bibi's supportive yet challenging style and ability to help them see differing perspectives and the positive impact coaching can have on their success. Clients benefit through awareness, focus and actionable strategies towards their own and their organisation's ambitions and goals.

Bibi is located in Dubai, UAE.
